PENINSULAR & ORIENTAL STEAM NAVIGATION COMPANY. NOTION OF REDUCTION OF PASS. AGE MONEY.

YN the year 1837 the Directors made a considerable reduction in the Company's rates of Passage Money, which continued in feres till 1841. In that year owing to the extraordinary rice in the Coat and Freight of Coals, and the enhanced price of all descriptions of Naval Stores, the the rates of Passage Money previously in turce. They are now happy to state that a decrease in the price of Cont and other expenses of Steam Naigation enables them to reduce the Company's manago rates to the undernoted scale, which will ake effect from and after the 1st June next, viz :-

Gibraltar, Reserved Rates for Married Complex.

The above rates are exclusive of the amount ayable to the Eryptian Transit Administration conveyance of Passengure through Egypt, For First class Passergers. Children shave three and under ton years, balf-fare. By Order of the Minnaging Directors,
